DOMAINE MICHEL BRÉGEON 2020 MUSCADET SÈVRE ET MAINE, LOIRE VALLEY, FRANCE

CL

Bright and with lively, prickling acidity, this White Wine from the Loire Valley is the perfect accompaniment to any sea food based dish. Grown on a rare type of soil for this region and harvested from vines up to 65 years in age, this is a stunning example what locale has to offer.

PIERO BENEVELLI 2021 "LA COSTA," DOLCETTO, ALBA, ITALY

Coming from vines planted in 1986, this Dolcetto from the Cru of Alba in the high North West of the Piedmont region of Italy is a textbook example of any everyday affordable drinker designed to pair with food. Rich, dark fruit along tannins that are just grippy enough to cut through richer cuisine or even pizza and pasta.

KA MANCINÉ 2020 “BERAGNA,” ROSSESE, LIGURIA, ITALY

CL

To say that this is a small production winery might be an understatement. With only a total of 3 hectares farmed to the obscure Rossese varietal, between two Crus, this is a prime example of obscure Italian viticulture that is also incredibly historic with the family’s vines having been planted in 1872.

IGNAZ NIEDRIST 2018 "BERGER GEI," LAGREIN RISERVA, SÜDTIROL, ITALY

With a family cellar that dates back 170 years comes this stunning example of a 100% old vine Lagrein planted in 1967 hailing from the hills in Italy's North Eastern region of Alto Adige. With less than 550 cases produced annually, this rich, deep violet wine is full of blackberry and tea aromas finishing with a refined and restrained touch of oak.
