

EXPLOR

ERS

ZULAL 2019, VOSKEHAT, VAYOTS DZOR, ARMENIA

CL

It's a pretty rare opportunity to get to try an Armenian wine and even more of a unique experience to get to try an indigenous varietal from the country. Crisp, clean, dry and lively this wine is sure to refresh your palate while providing a sense of place.

UB

To read more about this wine, click here.

JUNE 2022

EXPLOR

ERS

CL

UB

SCHOLA 2019, NEGROAMARO "ROCCANORA," PUGLIA, ITALY

This 100% Negroamaro varietal bottling perfectly showcases what we love best about the grape and region. Deep notes of plum, leather, and tobacco alongside bright acidity and just enough tannin to stand up to savory bbq.

To read more about this wine, click here.

JUNE 2022

SURVEY

ORS

CL

UB

SCHOLA 2019, NEGROAMARO "ROCCANORA," PUGLIA, ITALY

This 100% Negroamaro varietal bottling perfectly showcases what we love best about the grape and region. Deep notes of plum, leather, and tobacco alongside bright acidity and just enough tannin to stand up to savory bbq.

To read more about this wine, click here.

JUNE 2022

SURVEY

ORS

PSI Dominio de Pingus 2019, Tempranillo Blend, Ribero del Duero, Spain

CL

Composed mostly of Tempranillo from older vine parcels, this big, bold Spanish blend has loads of dark fruit, notes of coffee, and just a touch of oak.

UB

To read more about this wine, click here.

JUNE 2022

COLLECT

ORS

Aleofane 2019, Syrah, Saint Joseph, Rhone Valley, France

CL

When talking about the Northern Rhône valley of France, the family name Chave is one that deserves to be known. This 100% Syrah from the region of Saint Joseph is proof positive. Rich, savory, and smoky, this wine embodies everything we love about the region and varietal.

UB

To read more about this wine, click here.

JUNE 2022